Assessment Activities of Learning Outcomes: Questions for Review, Case Incidents Questions/Answers/Presentations, Self-Assessment Library, Research Project Documenting Sources, Comprehensive Final Examination.

Instructional Materials and References: Robbins, Stephen P., and Timothy A. Judge, “Organizational Behavior,” 16th Ed. (Upper Saddle River, New Jersey: Prentice Hall, 2015). ISBN-13: 9780133507645.

Instructional Methods: Lectures supported by PowerPoint slides with supervised exercises and business case studies. The emphasis will be on learning by doing. Every student must participate in intensive classroom activities, must complete homework, course assignments, and exams.

Topical Outline: The course provides balanced coverage of all key concepts of Organizational Behavior. This includes not only traditional topics such as personality, motivation, and leadership, but also cutting-edge issues such as emotions, trust, work-life balance, workplace spirituality, knowledge management, and e-organizations. The topics of globalization and cross-cultural differences, diversity, and ethics are woven into the course.

Course Requirements: Students will be responsible for completing the textbook chapter readings prior to the lectures, homework and classroom activities, case studies, and examinations. The expected amount of time a student will need to spend outside of class to complete his/her individual and/or group out-of-class homework assignments is six (6) hours per week for a 3-unit class.

Assessment Criteria and Methods of Evaluating Students:

The basis for the determination of the final grade for the course will be the total weighted score for all activities according to the percentages shown in the table:

Questions for Review:	10%
Case Incidents Questions/Answers:	10%
Case Incident Power Point Presentation:	15%
Self-Assessment Library:	10%
Research Project Documenting Sources:	15%
Comprehensive Final Exam:	35%
Attendance	05%
Total:	100%

Grading Scale (Point/Grade Conversion):

100-95 A	76-74 C
94-90 A-	73-70 C-
89-87 B+	69-65 D+
86-84 B	64-60 D
83-80 B-	59 or <F
79-77 C+

Attendance: Regular attendance at classes is essential. Each student is expected to be present for scheduled class periods, to be punctual, and to remain in class for the entire scheduled period. Excessive absences or tardiness may result in loss of credit, lowering of grade, or dismissal from the class. Students are responsible for making up class work missed.

Examinations: The final exam will consist of short answer and/or essay questions evaluating the student's understanding of the basic concepts, terms, processes, and issues covered in the course.

Electronic Devices: Cell phone ringers must be turned off while in the classroom and placed in a vibrating mode. Smart phone and laptop screens may not be viewed in class while lectures are in progress unless otherwise instructed.

Integrity and Quality of Scholarship: Integrity of scholarship must be maintained at all times. Plagiarism (copying directly from an author's work) is not permitted. All written work is to be word-processed unless otherwise indicated and should reflect college-level ability in English structure, grammar, spelling, and sophistication of analysis.

Plagiarism Detection: Lincoln University subscribes to Turnitin plagiarism prevention service. Student work will be used for plagiarism detection and for no other purpose. Originality reports will not be available for viewing.

Modification of the Syllabus: This syllabus and schedule are subject to change in the event of extenuating circumstances. An announcement of any changes will be made in class.

Homework and Classroom Activities:

NOTE: Student teams will answer their assigned "Questions for Review" in advance of lectures, word process the answers, bringing them to class, prepared to respond if called upon by the instructor to summarize the answers to these review questions. Satisfactory answers will be scored as a 2 (strong answer), 1 (satisfactory answer), or 0 (unsatisfactory answer or absence). Student teams will submit the review question answers to the instructor (or CANVAS) by the end of the course.

NOTE: Student teams will analyze and solve the assigned "Case Incidents" under the guidance of the instructor, apply relevant concepts and practical applications found in the respective chapters, word process the answers to the questions following the cases, and submit them to the instructor (or CANVAS) by the end of the course.

NOTE: Student teams will be given the opportunity to make Power Point presentations before the class of solutions to their selection of assigned "Case Incidents" and their responses to the questions following the cases. Students must be prepared to deliver creditable responses adding value based upon the material in the relevant chapter. Students' presentation skills will be assessed and evaluated for their professional demeanor. Please be prepared to participate. What you put into the course will determine what you and others get out of it. Student teams will submit the Power Points to the instructor (or CANVAS) by the end of the course.

NOTE: Self-Assessment Library: Insights Into Your Skills, Interests, and Abilities. Individual Self-assessment questionnaire handouts will be completed in class in conjunction with the textbook readings. Students will record their self-assessment scores and an analysis/interpretation of them on the questionnaires to be submitted to the instructor (or CANVAS) upon completion of the exercise or by the end of the course.

NOTE: Individual Research Project: MBA/DBA students are required to submit a research paper based upon the subject matter of selected chapter(s) from the textbook reviewing the current research about the chosen subject, summarizing the results, and offering conclusions. Needless to say, the research paper should be carefully and thoughtfully well written. The format of the research paper must adhere to the APA Publication Manual, available in the L.U. library and on the Lincoln University Website, be documented by proper annotation and referencing and include a bibliography. The 12 point font size should be utilized. Students will include at the beginning of their research paper the statement, "I have done my own work and have neither given nor received unauthorized assistance on this work." Students will submit their research projects to the instructor (or CANVAS) by the end of the course.
