

Instructions for Change of Program or Concentration Form

What is the Purpose of the form?

This form is required for changing in

- Program students are currently enroll (DBA, MBA, BA, AS, UT), or
- Concentration that students are currently enroll

How is the Form Used?

Students must

- Fill out the Change in Program or Concentration Form. Please make sure all the required fields are completed.
- If the fee is required, please bring this form to the Accounting Office for the payment, and keep the receipt
- Submit the form and receipt (only if the fee is required) to Admissions and Records Office.

Notes

1. A fee of $70 applies to each change of program to a lower level, or the second and further program change at the same level, or the second and further concentration change within the same program. This fee is charged per form*. The University administration will confirm the applicability of the fee in each case.
2. The $70 is charged per one time of request. Changes of both program and concentration requested at the same time will be counted as one change ($70).
3. In case the fee is required, students must also show their receipt in when they submit this form. If the University cannot confirm the payment, the change in program or concentration will not be processed.
