

IACBE

News Release

Lenexa, Kansas, USA (April 2017) – The Board of Commissioners of the International Accreditation Council for Business Education (IACBE) is pleased to announce that, at its meeting in San Francisco, California, USA on 22-23 April 2017, the Business Studies Unit at Lincoln University in Oakland, California was granted the status of candidate for accreditation.

In granting candidacy status, the Board of Commissioners has determined that the Institute of Business Management has developed an appropriate quality management system; has satisfied candidacy requirements relating to its business programmes, resources, and operational processes; and is eligible to undergo an accreditation review.

About the IACBE – The International Accreditation Council for Business Education (IACBE) was founded in 1997 and is nationally-recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). The IACBE is the leader in mission-driven and outcomes-based programmatic accreditation in business and management education for student-centered colleges, universities, and other higher education institutions throughout the world. The IACBE has hundreds of member institutions and campuses worldwide, and has accredited over 1,500 business and business-related programmes in the United States, Europe, Asia, the Middle East, Central America, and South America.

The IACBE's World Headquarters are located at 11374 Strang Line Road in Lenexa, Kansas, 66215, USA. For more information, please visit the IACBE's website at www.iacbe.org.

Advancing Academic Quality in Business Education Worldwide