Instructional Methodology

The course sessions will include lectures, A/V-augmented presentations (text-based and other topically related relevant audio/video/web resources), written and oral classroom exercises and readings applying course concepts, small group and classroom discussions, individual and group assignments based on course units, with emphasis on student engagement in learning by doing.

Assignments and projects require students to actively use resources of the library. Detailed guide to business resources of the library as well as the description of Lincoln University approach to information literacy are available at the LU Library website (lincolnuca.libguides.com).

Student Responsibilities

Students are expected to consistently attend class punctually and fully (arriving on time and leaving the classroom only at the scheduled break and end times). Successful students participate in individual, pair and group work in a productive manner, prepare and perform well on papers, complete assignments according to schedule and at a level appropriate to university rubrics, and take personal responsibility for meeting the objectives of the course.

Students will not use cell phones or other devices in class unless instructed by professor to do so.

Topical Outline

English 82 covers the aspects of composing well-organized written communications. The core of the course will emphasize practice in organizing ideas in a clear, logical manner and other elements involved in writing papers in descriptive, cause-effect, comparison and classification contexts. Student and professional writing models will be used throughout the units.

Homework Assignments

Students will complete two of 4 essays: narrative, comparison, cause and effect and argumentative and have the option of turning in one as a finished paper by a mid-term and another as a final or a third choice. In addition, for each of the course assignments, students will do the following:

- Read and reflect on assigned units as outlined on the course schedule.
- Review and respond to the assignments. In your response, outline the key questions and answers generated by your reading and reflection.

Course Schedule

Unit 1	Exploring the essay	Introduction/Body/Conclusion
Unit 2	Connectors and Relationship words	To learn How to write a narrative essay
Unit 3	Connectors for comparative essays	To learn to write a comparative essay
Unit 4	Connectors for cause-effect essay	To learn to write a cause-effect essay
Unit 5	Controlling tone with modals	To write an argumentative essay

Assessment Criteria & Method of Evaluating Students

Students will demonstrate their level of proficiency and achievement through appropriate and accurate application of written communication theory and skills. Assessments of improved competence in writing descriptive, comparison, informative, cause-effect and/or classification essays and personal and peer evaluations and reflections are fundamental to the grades attained.
