COURSE DESCRIPTION

Communication and information science in the applied context of business studies, including vocabulary, reading, writing, and speaking skills in the subject areas of marketing, international business, data processing, accounting, finance, management. (3 units)

The course emphasizes the role of critical and creative thinking in the business communication process. Students learn a systematic approach to designing messages for targeted business communication situations.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Primary objectives are to:

1. Improve your ability to comprehend and produce effective written and oral business communications for leadership and negotiation purposes,
2. Evaluate business communications within appropriate contexts, and
3. Apply systematic communicative language processing strategies for critical thinking, problem solving, conflict resolution, decision making, goal setting and attainment.

FORMAT

The course sessions will include lectures , A/V-augmented presentations (text-based and other topically related slides and relevant audio/video/web resources), written and oral classroom exercises applying course concepts, small group and classroom discussions, student presentations of individual and group assignments based on course units, with emphasis on engaging students in learning by doing.

TOPICAL OUTLINE

The scope of the course involves applying and extending communication skills relevant to managerial discourse, leadership and negotiation, including the theoretical foundation and technological extensions of business communications.

For each of the units (as well as additional assignments given in class), students will do the following:

- Read assigned materials with care and understanding,
- Reflect on the assignments in writing (a brief paragraph or two), discussing your thoughts on the primary content; include points of personal interest.
- Review main points of the reading and create a personalized three-level primary question and answer outline on a minimum of three or four selected items from the assigned readings. The outline should develop the main topics in question form with a clear and concise answer followed by significant details with definitions and examples, including your own ideas and evaluations.
- Email your assignments to me at profsylvia@gmail.com, with your outline and reflections attached or in the body of your email. Be sure to keep a copy of the email for yourself and add it to your ePortfolios/PowerPoint presentations for midterm and final submission and sharing.

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Learn to analyze the communicator, audience, purpose, context, and strategies of business communications in functional settings.
2. Select appropriate content, style and organization for varied situations.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Students are expected to attend class, to participate in individual and group work in a productive manner, to complete assignments according to schedule and at a level appropriate to university rubrics, and to take personal responsibility for meeting the objectives of the course.

Assignments are due on the dates indicated in the schedule below. Additions/revisions to the schedule will be announced in class as needed. Class attendance is mandatory for content, interactions, and presentations. Researched materials must be documented using a consistent style for both in-text and end-text citations of sources using the published standards of the most recent subject-appropriate style guide, such as APA (social sciences) or MLA (humanities), for example.
